Jindivick ANZAC Day Service 25 April 2023

Over 50 attended, in the beautiful Autumn sunshine our Jindivick ANZAC Day Service this year. Drouin West Fire Brigade came to our rescue as the rope and pulley on the flagpole had broken. With the aid of fire rakes they were able to rig a line between the flag and power poles, true to the Army saying 'Improvise, Adapt and Overcome.'

The Bourke family did a wonderful job hosting the service for us this year, Kathryn as MC, Terry gave an emotional and informative welcome speech, young Zuri laying a wreath and Anne supplied a huge tray of ANZAC biscuits handed around post ceremony. The two current Captains Mia Smart and Ruby Salmon from Jindivick Primary School recited 'In Flanders Field' prior to laying their wreath. It was wonderful for two Junior members from Drouin West Fire Brigade have this opportunity also.

A NOTE FROM GLEN CHROMIE CARAVAN PARK— Residents please take note of this as we certainly don't want to lose this service.

JINDIVICK PARCEL COLLECT

Thank you for using our Caravan Park for your Mail or Parcel pickup.

Our speed limit in our park and coming down our driveway is NO MORE than 10km an hour.

We have children and elderly walking/ running and cycling around the park and we will not tolerate speeding drivers.

Anyone continuously speeding in, around and into our park will result in having their parcels redirected to another location for pickup.

Australia's Biggest Morning in Jindivick was held on Thursday 18th May. Thankyou to all who came and celebrated and those who gave donations to be raffled. We raised over $500 to go to support people with cancer and research.

A little something from Jindivick Writers Group

We meet Wednesdays at 11am at Red Tree Gallery. Everyone is welcome, even if you can only make it occasionally. We have a cuppa whilst we either read our own work and give feedback, or talk about what we have done during the week followed by a couple of 10 –15 minute exercises, great for making you think quickly. We all write in different genres from animal voice and screen play to memoir and poetry and everything between. BYO lunch if you wish, pen and paper or laptop.

In absence of Debra clucker we will have a short piece from one of our members each month. Rosalie has been in hospital this month and I asked her permission to include her poem about

Africa and include photos of some of her magnificent stained glass. I am sure you will all be amazed by her talent.

East Africa

Africa oh Africa a place that's torn by wars
A place of dodgy politics, where money owns the law
This is what our media writes we see it in the news.
Where children nearly starve to death and poor are oft abused.

This is not my memory, of where my life began
I remember a lovely place a happy sunlit land,
Of gentle folk, with smiling face, who'd take me by the hand.
the parrots eating with delight on the giant corn.

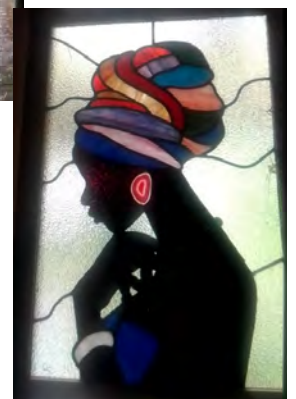

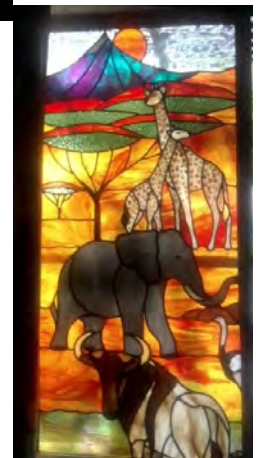

I miss my lovely Africa, its flora oh so grand
I missed my lovely Jackie as he rifled through my hair
Checking to see if there was anything tasty there,
I loved to feed the baby deer whose mother had been killed.

I miss the caring Africans who asked Bwana Mazie
How much was memsab kidogo Rosalie,
My father Shook his head and wondered what to say
Mingi, mingi sana was all that he'd convey.

Anita's Italian Goats Cheese Frittata

Firstly, a big welcome to our new editor Amanda. I'm sure many Jindivickians know that Amanda breeds the sweetest looking goats you've ever seen. In honour of her appointment, I've come up with a recipe for a goats cheese frittata. I hope you'll all enjoy this.....I'm sure Amanda will.

- 1 medium red onion-finely sliced
- 1 medium red capsicum-finely diced
- 4 silver beet leaves, green only - finely sliced
- 2 tablespoon of olive oil

- 8 eggs - beaten
- 40 g. grated pecorino or parmesan cheese
- Big handful of cherry tomatoes - halved

- Big handful of pitted black olives - whole
- 3 cubes of Meredith Goat's Cheese from jar- broken into chunks

- 2 or more tablespoons of roughly chopped parsley.

Salt and pepper

Preheat oven to 220c. In a 20 cm overproof dish or cast iron pan, gently warm oil. Add onion, capsicum and a pinch of salt and slowly cook until soft but not coloured, about 10 minutes. Add silverbeet and cook until just wilted. Beat eggs, add pecorino cheese and salt and pepper. Whisk again. Pour over vegetables and with a fork, gently incorporate vegetable and egg mix just a little. Scatter on top, tomatoes, chunks of goats cheese, olives and parsley. Bake in hot oven for 15 minutes or until golden and set.

Leave it to cool for 5 minutes before serving. Serves 4

Working Bee Jindivick Community Garden Volunteers needed. Saturday 17 June 9am—4pm. Trimmers, spraying, shovels, rakes, and trailer to cart away mess. Call or Text Trish on 0407 343 849 if you can participate. Weather permitting.

Nangara Notes

The council have spent a lot of time and expense re surfacing all of the tracks within the Nangara Reserve and I am sure everyone will appreciate their efforts to enable more inclusive access, not to mention keeping our feet drier over the coming winter months. The Autumn days have been wonderful for walks through the reserve. Dappled light filtering through the tops of the silvertop, mess-mate and srrezlecki gums, the bright pinks and reds of the native heath, different fungi continually emerging, the vast array of mosses and ferns, increased water flowing through the fern lined creek, and the early morning or afternoon light on vegetation, rocks and the wonderful artworks throughout the park.

St James Church Jindivick News

Easter is well behind us now but the good news is we have a new Minister to lead us forward in our faith journey. John Webster along with his wife, Philipa has come to be the incumbent of the Parish of Drouin. Come and listen to him preach, he might say something you've never heard before. If you would like to join us any first or third Sunday of the month, cuppa at 11.00 service 11.30, you will be made most welcome. For more information contact Faye 0400 014 226.

Trish Weickhart, an Ambulance Paramedic for Neerim, ran from Neerim South to Labertouche to raise awareness for the day. Jindi kids wore blue, made special signs and greeted Trish as she had a rest at Jindi. The Senior students from grades 3 – 6, are off to the Dandenong market. Travelling by train, they will buy ingredients from the market to cook up a wonderful feast at school. We will have a Pupil Free Day on Friday June 16, when all staff will be attending a Maths Conference.
